

CODE OF CONDUCT

Kaleo Collective is a safe space and welcoming atmosphere of positivity and mutual respect. This group is for single mothers who are at a stage in life where they are ready to build a secure future moving forward. Individuals support each other and are committed to maintaining a respectful environment that encourages positive interactions and personal growth.

COMMITMENT TO A SAFE SPACE

We are champions of diversity and extend a warm welcome into our inclusive environment of mutual respect. We are committed to building a community where all can succeed and flourish, individually and together. Maintaining this safe space also includes keeping information about other members confidential, both within and outside of Kaleo.

COMMITMENT TO BEING RESPECTFUL

While disagreements will arise, individuals are thoughtful and kind when interacting with each other. This safe space policy supports and enhances our community of love and acceptance. Aggression, harassment and any form of abuse are not tolerated.

COMMITMENT TO KINDNESS

Our choices are made with kindness at the heart. This community of single mothers supports and respects each other.

COMMITMENT TO KALEO

Kaleo is for sharing experiences and encouragement. We do not allow members to promote or solicit their businesses or services, paid or unpaid, to others in Kaleo Collective; this includes all programs, events, meetings, groups, group chats and online platforms under Kaleo. Members are not allowed to request money, gift cards, items, etc. on behalf of someone else or themselves.

CODE OF CONDUCT AGREEMENT

Kaleo Members shall not represent themselves as an employee, agent, partner or affiliate of Kaleo Collective. Adherence to the Kaleo Collective Code of Conduct is a condition of membership. While associated with Kaleo Collective, its activities, or while connected with Kaleo Collective, every individual must conduct themselves according to the Kaleo Collective Code of Conduct or risk losing their membership and privileges.
